11 The fact that I prefer literal war over the other side getting in office proves how utterly awful they are. I'm less scared of people with guns shooting each other in the streets and military tanks rolling through than I am of the policies they have planned for us.

preserve her. Others have given their lives in the presumption posterity would also when the climate was ripe. These epic faggots grin while they take what is ours, I'm sick of it, right next to you. It is now or never, if we fail, the souls of all those before us our lost. It is now that we take back what belongs to us. It is our right, granted by the creator and nobody else. In this moment we define OUR freedom so loudly, it echos for generations. Let us show the world what the responsibility of liberty requires. Gentlemen, take back what is yours!

▼ I love when limp wristed liberals start spouting off about how many guns they've all bought this year. Just ask them how much ammo they were able to find to go with those guns. Then ask them who has been buying ammo as a hobby for the past several decades.

▼ They already are armed. See NFAC. And all they manage to do each time they assemble is shoot themselves.

▼ Friendly reminder the bolsheviks were only 12-14% of the population.

Only 1/3 of colonists took on the greatest empire in the world

A couple thousand Irish fought against the English military and won.

The NSDAP was a small faction in German politics but due to them headlining against communists th won.

a sharp halt.

Apparently the colonist's Continental Army was 1/3 Irish too!
